Re: Supplemental Notice of Data Event

Dear Sir or Madam:

We continue to represent Radiology Associates of Albuquerque and Advanced Imaging, LLC, (together, "RAA"), located at 4411 The 25 Way, Suite 150, Albuquerque, NM 87109, and write to supplement our September 9, 2022 notification to your office regarding an incident that may affect certain personal information relating to Washington residents. This notice will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, RAA does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Washington law, the applicability of the Washington data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Per our prior notification to your office, in August 2021, RAA learned that it experienced a cyber incident. RAA promptly took steps to secure its systems and commenced an investigation into the nature and scope of the incident. RAA has been working diligently to investigate this incident and confirm any information that may be affected. Through the investigation, it was determined that certain documents stored within RAA's environment were copied from the system as part of the cyber incident between July 22, 2021 and August 3, 2021. Through the investigation, RAA further determined that certain email accounts were accessed without authorization at varying times between December 22, 2020 and July 15, 2021. Based on the investigation, RAA conducted a detailed review of the potentially impacted data to determine the type of information present and to whom it related. This process to review and catalogue the data and determine whose information may be affected has been ongoing and, in relation to patients of RAA correlated to a specific healthcare facility, was recently completed on or around September 16, 2022. RAA is now working to provide further notice to those additional individuals whose information may be affected.

The personal information, as defined by Wash. Rev. Code Ann. § 19.255.005, that may be affected includes: name; date of birth, medical information and/or health insurance information. Please note that the information potentially involved varies by individual and not all of these data types were affected for each person.

Notice to Washington Residents

Per our prior notification to your office, on September 9, 2022, RAA began providing written notice to potentially affected Washington residents. Based on the data review efforts discussed above, on October 11, 2022, RAA will be providing written notice to an additional nineteen (19) Washington residents. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached hereto as Exhibit A. Previously, in October 2021, while its investigation was ongoing, RAA posted notice of this incident to its website and provided notice to statewide media in New Mexico. On July 28, 2022, RAA updated the notice provided on its website and also provided notice to media in all 50 U.S. states.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

The confidentiality, privacy, and security of information within its care are among RAA's highest priorities. Upon learning of the event, RAA promptly took steps to secure its systems and investigate the full scope of the incident. While the response to the incident is ongoing, RAA has taken additional steps to further enhance the security of its systems. RAA is also notifying potentially affected individuals and providing information on steps they may take to best protect their information, including providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on a credit file, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud. RAA is also offering affected individuals access to 24 months of credit monitoring and identity theft protection at no cost to the individual. Further, RAA has reported this incident to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services ("HHS"), and will be reporting the incident to other state regulatory authorities and consumer reporting agencies as appropriate.

Should you have any questions regarding this notification, please contact me at (267) 930-5327.

Very truly yours,

Elizabeth Dill of

Dear <<first_name>> <<middle_name>> <<last_name>> <<suffix>>:

Radiology Associates of Albuquerque, also known as RAA Imaging, and Advanced Imaging, LLC, also known as High Resolution, (together “RAA”) are writing to make you aware of an incident that may affect your personal information. We want to provide you with information about the incident, our response, and steps you may take to help protect your personal information, should you feel it appropriate to do so. RAA is a radiological services provider whose radiologists provide services at a medical facility or clinic you visited.

What Happened? In August 2021, RAA learned that it experienced a cyber incident. We promptly took steps to secure our systems and commenced an investigation into the nature and scope of the incident. Through the investigation, we determined that certain documents stored within RAA’s environment were copied from the system as part of the cyber incident between July 22, 2021 and August 3, 2021. The investigation further determined that certain email accounts were accessed without authorization at varying times between December 22, 2020 and July 15, 2021. For certain patient information, this process to review the data and determine whose information may be affected has been ongoing and was preliminarily completed in July 2022. RAA then undertook a detailed effort to reconcile and consolidate the information in order to identify specific individuals and contact information, which was completed in September 2022. You are receiving this notice because we determined that your information may be affected.

What Information Was Involved? The personal information potentially affected varies by individual. It may include: name, date of birth, patient identification number, billing information, and examination type.

Upon learning of the event, we promptly took steps to secure our systems and investigate the full scope of the incident. In an abundance of caution, we are also notifying potentially affected individuals, including you, and providing information on steps you may take to best protect your information, should you feel it is appropriate to do so. We are also offering you access to identity monitoring services at no cost to you as an added precaution. Information on how to activate these services may be found in the attached “Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information.”

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer's express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the consumer reporting bureaus must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; access to your file is limited; you must give your consent for credit reports to be provided to employers; you may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report; and you may seek damages from violator.
