Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing on behalf of my client Apro, LLC d/b/a United Pacific and former entities whose assets are now in the custody of Apro, including without limitation Bedrock Northwest, Inc., Buon Hospitality, Inc., Convenience Retailers, LLC, Rapid Gas, Inc., and United El Segundo, Inc. (collectively "Apro"), to notify you of a data security incident.

On March 22, 2025, Apro learned of indications that an unauthorized third-party accessed certain Apro systems. In response, Apro immediately launched an investigation, and leading cybersecurity firms were engaged to assist. Apro also notified law enforcement and continued to support their investigation. The investigation revealed that an unauthorized third-party gained access to certain Apro systems at various times between February 19, 2025 and March 2, 2025 and obtained files from certain Apro systems during this time period. In response, Apro launched a review of the files involved to identify individuals whose personal information may have been contained in the files.

While the robust e-discovery review to identify personal information in the files involved was in the early stages, Apro mailed incident notification letters to current employees on May 23, 2025, including 222 Washington residents. On December 18, 2025, Apro completed its review of the files involved and identified the personal information of an additional 399 Washington residents. Today, December 29, 2025, Apro is providing notice to the additional 399 Washington residents and is offering 12-months of complimentary credit and fraud protection services to all individuals. A copy of the notification letter is attached. Apro is also providing a toll-free hotline for individuals to call with any questions regarding the incident. Apro's review to identify personal information in the files involved is now complete and the total number of Washington residents notified in connection with this incident is 621.

To help prevent a similar occurrence in the future, Apro has implemented, and continues to implement, numerous measures designed to further enhance the security of Apro's systems and data.

If you have any questions or need further information regarding this Incident, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Will Daugherty

You can also order your annual free credit report by mailing a completed Annual Credit Report Request Form (available from the U.S. Federal Trade Commission's ("FTC") website at www.consumer.ftc.gov) to: Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281.

* Offline members will be eligible to call for additional reports quarterly after enrolling.

 The Identity Theft Insurance is underwritten and administered by American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida, an Assurant company. Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.

For Colorado, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, and Vermont residents: You may obtain one or more (depending on the state) additional copies of your credit report, free of charge. You must contact each of the credit reporting agencies directly to obtain such additional report(s).

Security Freeze. Security freezes, also known as credit freezes, restrict access to your credit file, making it harder for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. You can freeze and unfreeze your credit file for free. You also can get a free freeze for your children who are under 16. And if you are someone's guardian, conservator or have a valid power of attorney, you can get a free freeze for that person, too.

How will these freezes work? Contact all three of the nationwide credit reporting agencies –Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. If you request a freeze online or by phone, the agency must place the freeze within one business day. If you request a lift of the freeze, the agency must lift it within one hour. If you make your request by mail, the agency must place or lift the freeze within three business days after it gets your request. You also can lift the freeze temporarily without a fee.

The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue.

For New Mexico Residents: You may obtain a security freeze on your credit report to protect your privacy and ensure that credit is not granted in your name without your knowledge. You may submit a declaration of removal to remove information placed in your credit report as a result of being a victim of identity theft. You have a right to place a security freeze on your credit report or submit a declaration of removal pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting and Identity Security Act. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

Fraud Alerts. A fraud alert tells businesses that check your credit that they should check with you before opening a new account. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years. To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

Federal Trade Commission and State Attorneys General Offices. If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your home state. You may also contact these agencies for information on how to prevent or avoid identity theft. TAX FRAUD INFORMATION

Be alert to possible tax-related identity theft, as tax-related identity theft occurs when someone uses a stolen Social Security number to file a fraudulent tax return to claim a refund. You may be unaware that this has happened until you file your return and discover that a return already has been filed using your SSN. Or, the IRS may send you a letter saying it has identified a suspicious return using your SSN. If you know or suspect you are a victim of tax-related identity theft, the IRS recommends these additional steps:

- Verify it is the IRS contacting you: www.irs.gov/help/tax-scams/recognize-tax-scams-and-fraud
- Respond immediately to any IRS notice; call the number provided or, if instructed, go to IDVerify.irs.gov.
- Complete IRS Form 14039, Identity Theft Affidavit, if you are instructed to do so or you cannot use the IDVerify.irs.gov service. Use a fillable form at IRS.gov, print, then attach the form to your return and mail according to instructions.
- Continue to pay your taxes and file your tax return, even if you must do so by paper.
- You can contact the IRS for specialized assistance at 1-800-908-4490.
- You can visit <https://www.irs.gov/identity-theft-central> for more information and guidance.
