EXHIBIT 1

This notice will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, QualDerm Partners, LLC ("QualDerm") located at 5141 Virginia Way, Suite 350, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027, does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Washington law, the applicability of the Washington data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On December 24, 2025, QualDerm detected unauthorized activity on certain systems within its network. QualDerm promptly took steps to contain the activity and launched an investigation, with the support of a third-party cybersecurity forensics firm. This investigation determined an unauthorized actor gained access to a limited number of systems within QualDerm's network between December 23, 2025, and December 24, 2025, and removed certain information stored within those systems.

To identify individuals potentially affected by this event, QualDerm conducted a comprehensive review of the involved files to determine what information was present in the impacted systems and to whom it relates. QualDerm's review of a portion of the involved files is ongoing, however QualDerm has identified certain files with personal information relating to individuals.

The information identified to date that could have been subject to unauthorized access varies by individual but includes patient name, contact information, date of birth, medical and treatment information, and health insurance information.

Notice to Washington Residents

On or about February 22, 2026, QualDerm began providing notice of this incident to seven hundred fifty-three (753) Washington residents. Notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

QualDerm is providing access to credit and identity monitoring services for twelve (12) months through CyberScout, a TransUnion company, to individuals whose personal information was potentially affected by this incident, at no cost to these individuals. QualDerm is unaware of any fraudulent misuse of personal information in relation to this event and is providing these services to individuals in an abundance of caution.

NOTICE OF DATA EVENT

Dear <<Name 1>> <<Name 2>>:

QualDerm Partners, LLC ("QualDerm") is writing to provide information about a recent event potentially impacting certain information relating to you. Although we are unaware of any attempted or actual misuse of your information, this letter contains additional information about the event, our investigation and response, and resources available to you to help protect your information, should you feel it appropriate to do so.

What Happened? On December 24, 2025, we detected unauthorized activity on certain systems within our network. We promptly took steps to contain the activity and launched an investigation, with the support of a third-party cybersecurity forensics firm. This investigation determined an unauthorized actor gained access to a limited number of systems within our network between December 23, 2025, and December 24, 2025, and removed certain information stored within those systems. We then took steps to secure this information and thoroughly review and analyze the data to determine what was present within and the patients to whom it relates.

What Information Was Involved? The investigation determined your name and <<exposed data elements>> were included within this information set. Notably, this incident did not impact your Social Security number, driver's license number, or financial account information.

What We Are Doing. We at QualDerm take this event and the security of information in our care seriously. Upon learning of this incident, we moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of our systems, and notify those impacted by this event. We also provided notice to federal law enforcement and required regulatory agencies. As part of our ongoing commitment to the privacy of personal information in our care, we are reviewing our existing policies and procedures regarding information security, as well.

What You Can Do. We encourage you to remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and Explanation of Benefits forms for suspicious activity and report all suspicious activity to the institution that issued the record. As an added precaution, we are also offering you access to twelve (12) months of complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services through Cyberscout, a TransUnion company, at no cost to you. If you wish to activate these monitoring services, you may follow the instructions included in the attached Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information.

For More Information. We understand that you may have questions about this incident that are not addressed in this letter. If you have additional questions, please call the dedicated assistance line at 1-855-522-4707, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern time, excluding holidays. You can also write to QualDerm at the following address: 5141 Virginia Way, Suite 350, Brentwood, TN 37027.

We are committed to the confidentiality of our patients and take the privacy of personal information in our care very seriously and sincerely regret any inconvenience or concern this incident may have caused.

Sincerely,

QualDerm Partners, LLC
