Re: Data Breach Notification: Brotherhood's Relief & Compensation Fund

To Whom It May Concern:

The Brotherhood's Relief & Compensation Fund (Fund) was targeted in a cyber-attack (ransomware) on January 3, 2021. The Fund immediately launched a recovery effort and engaged a firm to conduct a forensic investigation, which concluded January 22, 2021. The investigation could not identify the individual(s) responsible, nor the full extent of potential exposure of personal information stored in the Fund's database.

The following types of information are contained in the Fund's database: name, address, date of birth, social security/insurance number, telephone number, and bank account information, if provided.

The number of database records containing mailing addresses in your jurisdiction total approximately 1563.

The Fund is fully complying with all applicable statutes regarding notification of a breach of network security. Notices to affected individuals are scheduled to be transmitted via the United States Postal Service no later than February 5, 2021.

The Fund is extending comprehensive credit monitoring and identity protective services.

The Fund has conducted a review of system security. Additional, redundant safeguards have been deployed to further protect member information. Existing business relationships with several information technology providers are being reevaluated.

Please direct inquires to the undersigned.

Respectfully,

Brian J. Penfield International Secretary-Treasurer Brotherhood's Relief & Compensation Fund 300 Sterling PKWY, Suite 105 Mechanicsburg, PA 17050 (717) 657-1890 brian@brcf.org

Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<First Name>> <<Last Name>>,

What Happened

Since 1912, the officers, directors, and staff of the Brotherhood's Relief & Compensation Fund have worked tirelessly to serve the membership. The Fund has faced many challenges through the years, and we know that will always be the case. Unfortunately, the latest challenge occurred when the Fund became the target of a cyber-attack on January 3, 2021. The Fund immediately launched a system recovery effort and engaged the services of a highly recommended digital forensic investigation firm. Unfortunately, the results of the investigation cannot identify the criminals responsible.

What Information Was Involved

Although there is no evidence that any personal information was compromised, the following types of information are contained in the Fund's database: name, address, date of birth, social security/insurance number, telephone number, and bank account information, if provided.

What We Are Doing

The Fund has conducted a review of system security. We have deployed additional, redundant safeguards to protect member information. We are also reassessing our business relationships with several information technology providers.

In addition to fully complying with all reporting requirements, the Fund will extend credit monitoring and identity protective services to every individual in our database out of an abundance of caution. We are offering identity theft protection services through IDX, the data breach and recovery services expert. In closing, the officers, directors, and staff of the Fund sincerely apologize for any inconvenience or concern this incident may cause you. We are each personally invested in providing the best possible service to the membership while in pursuit of our mission to protect against an occasion of economic hardship. We believe no such difficulty should arise for the membership as a result of this cyber-attack, but extend the protective services described herein, as is our duty. That duty extends beyond legalities; it is the moral foundation of our fraternal brotherhood.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Recommended Steps to help Protect your Information

1. Website and Enrollment. Go to https://response.idx.us/customending and follow the instructions for enrollment using your Enrollment Code provided at the top of the letter.

2. Activate the credit monitoring provided as part of your IDX identity protection membership. The monitoring included in the membership must be activated to be effective. Note: You must have established credit and access to a computer and the internet to use this service. If you need assistance, IDX will be able to assist you.

3. Telephone. Contact IDX at 833-726-0931 to gain additional information about this event and speak with knowledgeable representatives about the appropriate steps to take to protect your credit identity.

4. Review your credit reports. We recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports. Under federal law, you also are entitled every 12 months to one free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting companies. To obtain a free annual credit report, go to www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. You may wish to stagger your requests so that you receive a free report by one of the three credit bureaus every four months.

If you discover any suspicious items and have enrolled in IDX identity protection, notify them immediately by calling or by logging into the IDX website and filing a request for help.

If you file a request for help or report suspicious activity, you will be contacted by a member of our ID Care team who will help you determine the cause of the suspicious items. In the unlikely event that you fall victim to identify theft as a consequence of this incident, you will be assigned an ID Care Specialist who will work on your behalf to identify, stop and reverse the damage quickly.

You should also know that you have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity fraud. Please note that in order to file a crime report or incident report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some kind of proof that you have been a victim. A police report is often required to dispute fraudulent items. You can report suspected incidents of identity theft to local law enforcement or to the Attorney General.

5. Place Fraud Alerts with the three credit bureaus. If you choose to place a fraud alert, we recommend you do this after activating your credit monitoring. You can place a fraud alert at one of the three major credit bureaus by phone and also via Experian's or Equifax's website. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. The contact information for all three bureaus is as follows:

Credit Bureaus

Equifax Fraud Reporting 1-866-349-5191 P.O. Box 105069 Atlanta, GA 30348-5069 www.equifax.com Experian Fraud Reporting 1-888-397-3742 P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 www.experian.com TransUnion Fraud Reporting 1-800-680-7289 P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19022-2000 www.transunion.com

It is necessary to contact only ONE of these bureaus and use only ONE of these methods. As soon as one of the three bureaus confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place alerts on their records as well. You will receive confirmation letters in the mail and will then be able to order all three credit reports, free of charge, for your review. An initial fraud alert will last for one year.

Please Note: No one is allowed to place a fraud alert on your credit report except you.

6. Security Freeze. By placing a security freeze, someone who fraudulently acquires your personal identifying information will not be able to use that information to open new accounts or borrow money in your name. You will need to contact the three national credit reporting bureaus listed above to place the freeze. Keep in mind that when you place the freeze, you will not be able to borrow money, obtain instant credit, or get a new credit card until you temporarily lift or permanently remove the freeze. There is no cost to freeze or unfreeze your credit files.
