

Stuart Elway Dec. 2015 statewide survey of 500 registered Washington voters

Should Washington state raise the tobacco sale age to 21?

There will be a proposal before the state legislature to raise the legal age for the sale of cigarettes and other tobacco products in Washington State from 18 to 21. Are you inclined to favor or oppose Washington changing the law to raise that age?