Re: Notice of Data Event

Dear Sir or Madam:

We represent Combat Brands LLC, 15850 West 108th Street, Lenaxa, KS 66219 (“Combat Brands”), and are writing to notify your office of an incident affecting Combat Brands’s e-commerce sites, www.fightgear.com, www.fitness1st.com, www.ringside.com, and www.combatsports.com, that may affect the security of personal information relating to certain Washington residents. By providing this notice, Combat Brands does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Washington law, the applicability of the Washington data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On January 25, 2017, Combat Brands began investigating some unusual activity reported by its credit card processor. Combat Brands immediately began to work with third-party forensic experts to investigate these reports and to identify any signs of compromise on its systems. On February 23, 2017, Combat Brands discovered that it was the victim of a sophisticated cyber-attack that resulted in the potential compromise of some customers’ debit and credit card data used at www.fightgear.com, www.fitness1st.com, www.ringside.com, and www.combatsports.com between July 1, 2015 to February 23, 2017.

Since that time, Combat Brands has been working with third-party forensic investigators to determine what happened, what information was affected and to implement additional procedures to further protect the security of customer debit and credit cards. Combat Brands removed the malware at issue to prevent any further unauthorized access to customer debit or credit card information. Combat Brands is also working with the Federal Bureau of Investigations to investigate this incident. Customers can safely use their payment card at www.fightgear.com, www.fitness1st.com, www.ringside.com, and www.combatsports.com.

Notice to Washington Residents

Through the ongoing third-party forensic investigations, Combat Brands confirmed on February 23, 2017 that malware may have stolen credit or debit card data from some credit and debit cards used at www.fightgear.com, www.fitness1st.com, www.ringside.com, and www.combatsports.com between July 1, 2015 and February 23, 2017. The information at risk as a result of this event includes the cardholder's name, card number, expiration date and CVV. Combat Brands determined that personally identifiable information relating to seven hundred and fifty-three (753) Washington residents may have been compromised. Combat Brands is providing written notice of this incident to these potentially impacted Washington residents beginning on or about April 14, 2017, in substantially the same form as the letter attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Combat Brands is working with the FBI to investigate this incident. Combat Brands has established a dedicated hotline for individuals to contact with questions or concerns regarding this incident. Additionally, Combat Brands is providing potentially impacted individuals with helpful information on how to protect against identity theft and fraud, including how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, the contact information for the national consumer reporting agencies, how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, state attorney general, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud. Combat Brands is also providing written notice of this incident to other state regulators and the national consumer reporting agencies as necessary.

PRIVACY SAFEGUARDS INFORMATION

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to review your account statements, and to monitor your credit reports for suspicious activity. Under U.S. law you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also contact the three major credit bureaus directly to request a free copy of your credit report.

At no charge, you can also have these credit bureaus place a “fraud alert” on your file that alerts creditors to take additional steps to verify your identity prior to granting credit in your name. Note, however, that because it tells creditors to follow certain procedures to protect you, it may also delay your ability to obtain credit while the agency verifies your identity. As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place fraud alerts on your file. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, or should you have any questions regarding your credit report, please contact any one of the agencies listed below.

You may also place a security freeze on your credit reports. A security freeze prohibits a credit bureau from releasing any information from a consumer’s credit report without the consumer’s written authorization. However, please be advised that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit mortgages, employment, housing, or other services. If you have been a victim of identity theft, and you provide the credit bureau with a valid police report, it cannot charge you to place, lift or remove a security freeze. In all other cases, a credit bureau may charge you a fee to place, temporarily lift, or permanently remove a security freeze. You will need to place a security freeze separately with each of the three major credit bureaus listed above if you wish to place a freeze on all of your credit files.
