INTRODUCTION

The Capital Punishment Case Status Report is published monthly by the Office of the Attorney General, Corrections Division. It details the legal status of each case where an individual is currently under sentence of death. For easy reference, the names of current counsel for each case are italicized and bolded, and the latest developments on each case are also in bold print. Further information about any of these cases may be obtained by contacting Tim Lang, Corrections Division, or the members of the Capital Litigation Team as listed on the cover page of this report.

The court is directed to take evidence on whether counsel's representation in this regard fell below an objective standard of reasonableness based on consideration of all circumstances, including whether any legitimate strategic or tactical reasons supported the decision not to consult and call such experts. The trial court at the conclusion is to enter findings of fact on the issue referred and expedite the process)
06/05/03	70233-1 WSSC	Order (Petitioner has not established facts that give rise to a substantial reason to believe that the renewed motion for appointment of attorney expert and renewed motion for funds to hire an investigator will produce information that would support relief under RAP 16.4(c). The order for the reference hearing does not require the trial court to make a legal conclusion regarding the adequacy of trial counsel's performance. The trial court is directed to find the facts regarding the performance of trial counsel, leaving for this court the determination whether trial counsel's performance was legally adequate.
