INTRODUCTION

The Capital Punishment Case Status Report is published monthly by the Office of the Attorney General, Corrections Division. It details the legal status of each case where an individual is currently under sentence of death. For easy reference, the names of current counsel for each case are italicized and bolded, and the latest developments on each case are also in bold print. Further information about any of these cases may be obtained by contacting Tim Lang, Corrections Division, or the members of the Capital Litigation Team as listed on the cover page of this report.

09/27/02	70233-1 WSSC	Order (trial court is directed to hold a reference hearing on the issue of whether counsel's failure to consult and call mental health experts in the penalty phase was deficient performance. The court is directed to take evidence on whether counsel's representation in this regard fell below an objective standard of reasonableness based on consideration of all circumstances, including whether any legitimate strategic or tactical reasons supported the decision not to consult and call such experts. The trial court at the conclusion is to enter findings of fact on the issue referred and expedite the process)
06/05/03	70233-1 WSSC	Order (Petitioner has not established facts that give rise to a substantial reason to believe that the renewed motion for appointment of attorney expert and renewed motion for funds to hire an investigator will produce information that would support relief under RAP 16.4(c). The order for the reference hearing does not require the trial court to make a legal conclusion regarding the adequacy of trial counsel's performance. The trial court is directed to find the facts regarding the performance of trial counsel, leaving for this court the determination whether trial counsel's performance was legally adequate. Therefore, no funds are authorized for attorney experts or an investigator. The request to file this order under seal is denied)

12/15/10	84614-6 WSSC	Order (The Court received the e-mail response of James M. Whisman regarding the Appellant's "Motion To Stay The DOC's Collection Of Costs Specifically Waived By The Trial Court Order." Further review of the motion, as well as a review of the status as to the actual parties in this matter, raises the issue as to whether or not the motion is properly filed in Supreme Court cause number 84614-6. First, it appears that the DOC is not a party to this action, nor would the challenge to its administrative interpretation and/or application of the terms of the trial court order regarding its apparent collections appear to be within the scope of the pending appeal. Accordingly, in that regard, the parties in this matter are directed to serve and file written comments (which may be in letter form) addressing whether or not the motion should be considered by this Court in this matter. Said comments should include citations to any authority in support of the position taken in the comments.)

11/15/10	83130-1 WSSC	Order (State's motion to strike is granted with respect to attachment T and paragraph 3 of attachment J, and its remaining requests to strike are denied. That, with respect to Stenson's personal restraint petitions (No. 83130-1 and No. 83606-0), Judge Williams of the Clallam County Superior Court is directed to determine, based on the record from the reference hearing conducted in March 2010, whether during Stenson's trial the prosecution suppressed the newly discovered photographs and FBI file evidence in violation of Brady v. Maryland , 373 U.S. 83, 87, 83 S. Ct. 1194 (1963). In making this determination, Judge Williams must consider whether the suppressed evidence was "material" to guilt or punishment irrespective of good faith or bad faith, evidence being material "only if there is a reasonable probability that, had the evidence been disclosed to the defense, the result of the proceeding would have been different." U.S. v. Bagley , 473 U.S. 667, 682, 105 S. Ct. 3375 (1985); see also In re Pers. Restraint of Benn , 134 Wn.2d 868, 916, 952 P.2d 116 (1998). A "reasonable probability" is not whether the defendant "would more than likely than not have received a different verdict with the evidence, but whether in its absence he received a fair trial, understood as a probability sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome." Benn , 134 Wn.2d 868, 916. In making this determination, Judge Williams, in his discretion, may conduct an additional reference hearing and/or permit the parties to submit additional evidence and testimony. Judge Williams is directed to file his determinations on the Brady question not later than January 21, 2011.)
