Re: Data Security Breach Voluntary Notification

To Whom It May Concern:

EILEEN FISHER, Inc. ("EILEEN FISHER"), a client of Bryan Cave LLP, is notifying the Office of the Attorney General that EILEEN FISHER is notifying 755 clients who reside in Washington of a criminal cyber-attack on the EILEEN FISHER e-commerce site. This letter is being provided as a courtesy as we do not believe notification is required under Rev. Code Wash. 19.255.010.

In late October, EILEEN FISHER was made aware of a possible data security incident affecting its e-commerce website between September 7 and October 24, 2016. EILEEN FISHER immediately began investigating the incident and enlisted a leading forensics firm to help in its investigation.

While the investigation is ongoing, at this time EILEEN FISHER believes that malicious code was added to the EILEEN FISHER website which allowed unauthorized individuals to capture certain payment information during the checkout process. The information potentially affected includes customer name, shipping and billing address, and credit card number used to make a purchase on eileenfisher.com.

U.S. customers that made a purchase from the EILEEN FISHER website, and customers that began making a purchase but ultimately did not complete that purchase, may have been affected by this incident.

EILEEN FISHER has removed the malicious code and excluded the unauthorized individual from its website.

EILEEN FISHER has notified its payment processor. In addition, EILEEN FISHER is notifying all potentially affected customers on November 9, 2016 via email. An example of the customer message is attached (please note that two slightly different versions were sent depending on whether the customer completed a transaction or only began the order process but did not complete the transaction). While it is unlikely that this event will result in new account creation identity theft, EILEEN FISHER is offering each affected customer a one-year subscription to two AllClear ID services that are focused on identifying or remediating existing account fraud that might impact the credit card accounts involved:

> AllClear Identity Repair: This service is automatically available to customers with no enrollment required. If a problem arises, a customer may simply call 855.231.9570 and a dedicated investigator will help them recover financial losses, restore their credit and make sure their identity is returned to its proper condition.
> AllClear Identity Theft Monitoring: AllClear, working in partnership with the National Cyber-Forensics and Training Alliance (NCFTA), which runs a global clearinghouse for stolen credentials, will alert customers about potentially compromised data, including credit card numbers. When AllClear receives data from the NCFTA that matches a customer's data, AllClear will alert the customer. This service also offers $1 million identity theft insurance coverage.

Information regarding these services, as well as additional information to assist customers, is included in the notification sent to the customer.

If you would like any additional information concerning the above event, please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joshua James

Notice of Data Breach

Dear [First Name],

For over 30 years, we have strived to uphold the highest standards of security, trust and transparency in the relationship with our customers. It is our company ethos to maintain and pursue exemplary business practices to better serve our community.

What Happened

Our records show that you made a purchase on eileenfisher.com between Wednesday, September 7 – Monday, October 24, 2016. In late October, we were informed of a possible data security incident that affected our website during that time.

We immediately began investigating the situation and are working diligently with a leading forensics firm to explore the issue. At this time, we believe that malicious code was added to our website which allowed unauthorized individuals to capture certain information during the checkout process. We have removed that malicious code and excluded the unauthorized individuals from our website.

What Information Was Involved?

While the investigation is still ongoing, we have confirmed the possibility that unauthorized individuals may have gained access to your name, the shipping and billing address, and the credit card number used to make your purchase on eileenfisher.com.

What We Are Doing

The security of our customers' information is always a priority and we sincerely regret any inconvenience to you.

As an added precaution, we have arranged to have AllClear ID assist customers with AllClear's Identity Repair and Identity Theft Monitoring services for 12 months at no cost to you. You can find more details about the services below.

What You Can Do

While this investigation is still underway, no matter what the outcome, please note the following:

- You have zero liability for any charges that you didn't make.
- Sign up for AllClear Identity Theft Monitoring services (explained below).
- Be wary of telephone or email scams.

For More Information

As part of our effort to provide you with timely, accurate information, we have enlisted the help of AllClear ID's Identity Protection Support Services. They can be reached at 855.231.9570 and will provide you with answers to your questions or will find the appropriate person who can answer your questions.

For more information and answers to frequently asked questions, please visit eileenfisher.com/info. This page will continue to be updated as we are committed to addressing your questions as quickly and accurately as possible.

Please know that no email from us will request personal information from you. If you receive an email that appears to be from EILEEN FISHER that requests personal information, please do not reply to that email; it is likely to be a scam.

We value your cooperation and patience as we investigate this incident.

AllClear ID Services Available to You:

AllClear Identity Repair: This service is automatically available to you with no enrollment required. If a problem arises, simply call 855.231.9570 and a dedicated investigator will help recover financial losses, restore your credit and make sure your identity is returned to its proper condition.

AllClear Identity Theft Monitoring: AllClear, working in partnership with the National Cyber-Forensics and Training Alliance (NCFTA), which runs a global clearinghouse for stolen credentials, will alert you about potentially compromised data, including credit card numbers. When AllClear receives data from the NCFTA that matches your data, AllClear will alert you. This service also offers $1 million identity theft insurance coverage.

To use this service, you will need to provide your personal information to AllClear ID. You may sign up online at enroll.allclearid.com or by phone by calling 855.231.9570 using the following redemption code {Redemption_Code}.

Please note: Additional steps may be required by you in order to activate your phone alerts and monitoring options.

Information about Identity Protection

We recommend you remain vigilant with respect to reviewing your account statements, and promptly report any suspicious activity or suspected identity theft to us and to the proper law enforcement authorities, including local law enforcement, your state's attorney general and/or the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC").

Although the information involved in this incident is unlikely to lead to the creation of new accounts using your identity, we recommend that, as a general matter, you regularly review statements from your accounts and periodically obtain your credit report from one or more of the national credit reporting companies. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report online at www.annualcreditreport.com, by calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by mailing an Annual Credit Report Request Form (available at www.annualcreditreport.com) to: Annual Credit Report Request Service,

P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA, 30348-5281. You may also purchase a copy of your credit report by contacting one or more of the three national credit reporting agencies listed below.

Equifax:	P.O. Box 740241, Atlanta, Georgia 30374-0241, 1-800-685-1111, www.equifax.com
Experian:	P.O. Box 9532, Allen, TX 75013, 1-888-397-3742, www.experian.com
TransUnion:	P.O. Box 1000, Chester, PA 19022, 1-800-888-4213, www.transunion.com

When you receive your credit reports, review them carefully. Look for accounts or creditor inquiries that you did not initiate or do not recognize. Look for information, such as home address and Social Security number, that is not accurate. If you see anything you do not understand, call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report.

Additionally, if you believe that you have been the victim of identity theft, you have the right to file a police report regarding that incident and obtain a copy of that police report. You may also obtain a police report regarding this incident if any is filed.

Fraud Alerts: There are also two types of fraud alerts that you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud: an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for at least 90 days. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years. You can place a fraud alert on your credit report by calling the toll-free fraud number of any of the three national credit reporting agencies listed below.

Equifax:	1-888-766-0008, www.equifax.com
Experian:	1-888-397-3742, www.experian.com
TransUnion:	1-800-680-7289, fraud.transunion.com

Credit Freezes: You may have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to get access to your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. In addition, you may incur fees to place, lift and/or remove a credit freeze. Credit freeze laws vary from state to state. The cost of placing, temporarily lifting, and removing a credit freeze also varies by state, generally $5 to $20 per action at each credit reporting company (in Massachusetts, the fee is $5). Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. Since the instructions for how to establish a credit freeze differ from state to state, please contact the three major credit reporting companies as specified below to find out more information:

Equifax:	P.O. Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com
Experian:	P.O. Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
TransUnion LLC:	P.O. Box 2000, Chester, PA, 19022-2000, freeze.transunion.com

You can obtain more information about fraud alerts and credit freezes by contacting the FTC or one of the national credit reporting agencies listed above.

If you are a resident of Maryland or North Carolina, you can obtain additional information for how to avoid identity theft (including how to place a fraud alert or security freeze on your account) and how to report identity theft from the following sources:
