Dear Sir/Madam:

We write to you on behalf of our client, Amtrak, to notify you of a security incident that resulted in an unknown third party potentially gaining access to certain Amtrak Guest Rewards accounts, including the accounts of 1,208 Washington residents. This cyber-event did not constitute a data breach under the laws of Washington State, but we have chosen to inform you out of consideration for the residents of Washington and in the interest of transparency.

On July 24, 2020, Amtrak detected that an unknown third party may have gained unauthorized access to certain Amtrak Guest Rewards accounts. Amtrak identified the incident and took steps to prevent accounts from further unauthorized access including locking each affected account until the password was reset. Amtrak has determined that usernames and passwords were compromised as well as information such as mailing and email addresses that could be viewed using these credentials. No Social Security Numbers, Driver's License Numbers, or financial account information were compromised.

Amtrak will provide notification regarding this incident to the impacted Washington residents on November 5, 2020. A template copy of the notification to be sent to the Washington residents is attached to this letter.

As a precaution, and to assist the affected individual in guarding against any possible misuse of their information, Amtrak is offering affected individuals a complimentary one-year membership of Experian's® IdentityWorksSM. This product provides individuals with superior identity detection and resolution of identity theft. Individuals can visit the Experian IdentityWorks website to enroll and they have until January 31, 2021 to do so. Amtrak takes this matter very seriously and is taking steps to prevent incidents like this from happening again. During the course of the incident response, remediation activities included resetting the passwords for potentially affected accounts and geo blocking account access. Amtrak has also engaged outside cybersecurity experts to confirm that the incident was contained and has implemented additional safeguards to protect consumers since the discovery of the incident. WHAT YOU CAN DO

While we have no indication that your information was misused in any way, you should always remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by regularly reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports. If you discover any suspicious or unusual activity on your accounts or suspect identity theft or fraud, report it immediately to your financial institutions. In addition, you may contact the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) or law enforcement to report incidents of identity theft. To learn about steps you can take to protect yourself from identity theft go to the FTC's Website, at www.identitytheft.gov, call the FTC at (877) IDTHEFT (438-4338) or write to Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

Under federal law, you are entitled to one free copy of your credit report every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report by going to www.AnnualCreditReport.com or by calling (877) 322-8228. You may contact the nationwide credit reporting agencies at:

Equifax
(800) 525-6285
P.O. Box 740241
Atlanta, GA 30374-0241
www.equifax.com

Experian

TransUnion

You may obtain additional information from the FTC and the credit reporting agencies about fraud alerts and security freezes. A fraud alert can make it more difficult for someone to get credit in your name because it tells creditors to follow certain procedures to protect you, but it also may delay your ability to obtain credit. You may place a fraud alert in your file by calling just one of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies listed above. As soon as that agency processes your fraud alert, it will notify the other two agencies, which then must also place fraud alerts in your file. In addition, you can contact the nationwide credit reporting agencies regarding if and how you may place a security freeze on your credit report to prohibit a credit reporting agency from releasing information from your credit report without your prior written authorization.
