Dear Attorney General Ferguson:

On behalf of TradeMotion, LLC (“TradeMotion”), I write to inform you of an incident involving 195 Washington residents, of which 71 were affected through our website, Parts.com (“Site”), and 124 were affected through our integrated “e-stores,” which we operate as a service provider to assist automotive dealers and manufacturers in the sale of automotive parts, products, and related services to consumers across the United States.

In February and March of 2018, TradeMotion was notified by a small number of consumers and partners that certain consumers had experienced fraudulent credit card charges after using their credit card on a TradeMotion website. We promptly began efforts to investigate these reports. After undertaking an initial investigation, we determined on March 20th that an unauthorized individual or group extracted personal information through a technical vulnerability and by using compromised account credentials. Ultimately, our investigation concluded that an unauthorized person was able to obtain order information, consumer names, billing and mailing addresses, emails, phone numbers, credit/debit card numbers, CVV codes, and expiration dates on five separate occasions in October 2017, January 2018, February 2018, March 2018, and May 2018. TradeMotion has taken steps to block further unauthorized access through this type of attack. In addition, TradeMotion has taken steps to enhance its existing network and email security, including deactivating unused accounts, resetting certain passwords, and minimizing access to personal information. Additionally, we are re-engineering the process in which payment information is collected and stored.

We began mailing notifications to each affected individual on July 24, 2018. A generic sample copy of the notification letter that was mailed to affected individuals is enclosed.

We are offering one year of free identity protection services to Washington residents in response to this incident. This product is offered through LifeLock, and residents may access this service by visiting the LifeLock website and inputting the promotional code we have provided.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (713) 718-1800 or RichardRick_Rauch@reyrey.com.

Sincerely,

Richard Rauch
