Washington’s Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA)

• Passed in 1971
• Requires meetings to be open to the public, gavel to gavel
• RCW 42.30
Purpose

• “The people do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies which serve them.”
• “The people, in delegating authority, do not give public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know.”
• “The people insist on remaining informed so they may retain control over the instruments they have created.”

~ RCW 42.30.010
Purpose (Cont.)

• Public commissions, boards, councils, etc. listed in OPMA are agencies of this state that exist to aid in the conduct of the people’s business.
• Their actions are to be taken openly and deliberations conducted openly.
  ~ RCW 42.30.010

• Act is to be “liberally construed.”
  ~ RCW 42.30.910

• The purpose of the OPMA is to allow the public to view the “decisionmaking process.”
  ~ Washington State Supreme Court
Open Government Laws Like the OPMA are Often Called “Transparency Laws” or “Sunshine Laws”

This is because they “shine light” on government. U.S. Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis once famously said, "Sunlight is the best disinfectant."

Transparency builds public confidence in government.
OPMA Applies To:

Multi-member public state and local agencies, such as boards and commissions, as follows:

- Any state board, commission, committee, department, educational institution, or other state agency which is created by or pursuant to statute, other than courts and the legislature.
- Any county, city, school district, special purpose district, or other municipal corporation or political subdivision of Washington.
- Any subagency of a public agency which is created by or pursuant to statute, ordinance, or other legislative act, including but not limited to planning commissions, library or park boards, commissions, and agencies.
- Any policy group whose membership includes representatives of publicly owned utilities formed by or pursuant to the laws of this state when meeting together as or on behalf of participants who have contracted for the output of generating plants being planned or built by an operating agency.

~ RCW 42.30.020

These are the “public agencies” subject to the OPMA.
OPMA Does Not Apply To:

• These entities:
  - Courts
  - Legislature
  - Agencies not defined as “public agency” in OPMA, such as agencies governed by a single individual
  - Private organizations

• These activities:
  - Licensing/permitting for businesses, occupations or professions or their disciplinary proceedings (or proceedings to receive a license for a sports activity, or to operate a mechanical device or motor vehicle)
  - Quasi-judicial matters
  - Matters governed by the Washington Administrative Procedure Act, RCW 34.05
  - Collective bargaining

~ RCW 42.30.020(1), RCW 42.30.140
Governing Body

• All meetings of the governing body of a public agency shall be open and public and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting of the governing body of a public agency, except as otherwise provided in RCW 42.30.

~ RCW 42.30.030
What is a Governing Body?

- The multimember board or other policy or rule-making body

OR

- Any committee of such public agency when:
  - the committee acts on behalf of the governing body,
  - conducts hearings, or
  - takes testimony or public comment

~ RCW 42.30.020
What is a Meeting?

- Meeting means meetings at which the public agency takes action ~ RCW 42.30.020

- Action means the transaction of the official business of the public agency and includes but is not limited to:
  - Public testimony
  - All deliberations
  - Discussions
  - Considerations
  - Reviews
  - Evaluations
  - Final actions

The requirements of the OPMA are triggered whether or not “final” action is taken. See upcoming slide on “final action.”

- A “meeting” of a governing body occurs when a majority of its members (quorum) gathers with the collective intent of transacting the governing body’s business.

  ~ Citizens Alliance for Property Rights Legal Fund v. San Juan County
“Meeting” (Cont.)

- Physical presence not required – a meeting can occur by phone or email.

- An exchange of e-mail could constitute a meeting if, for example, a quorum of the members participate in the e-mail exchange & discuss agency business. Simply receiving information without comment is not a meeting.
  ~ Wood v. Battle Ground School District; Citizens Alliance for Property Rights Legal Fund v. San Juan County

- Does not need to be titled “meeting” – OPMA also applies to “retreats,” “workshops,” “study sessions,” etc.

- No meeting occurs if the governing body lacks a quorum.
Final Action

• “Final action” is a collective positive or negative decision, or an actual vote, by a majority of the governing body, or by the “committee thereof”

• Must be taken in public, even if deliberations were in closed session.

• Secret ballots are not allowed.

~ RCW 42.30.060, RCW 42.30.020
Travel and Gathering

- A majority of the members of a governing body may travel together or gather for purposes other than a regular meeting or a special meeting, so long as no action is taken.
- Discussion or consideration of official business would be action, triggering the requirements of the OPMA.

~ RCW 42.30.070
“Regular” Meetings

• “Regular meetings” are recurring meetings held in accordance with a periodic schedule by ordinance, resolution, bylaws or other rule.

• A state public agency must:
  • Yearly, file with Code Reviser a schedule of regular meetings, including time and place
  • Publish changes to regular meeting schedule in state register at least 20 days prior to rescheduled date

~ RCW 42.30.070; RCW 42.30.075; RCW 42.30.077
“Regular” Meetings (Cont.)

- Agenda notice requirements apply to regular meetings.
- RCW 42.30.077 requires governing bodies to make the agenda of each regular meeting of the governing body available online no later than 24 hours in advance of the published start time of the meeting.

- This law does not:
  - Apply to agencies that do not have websites.
  - Apply to agencies that employ fewer than 10 full-time employees.
  - Restrict agencies from later modifying an agenda.
  - Invalidate otherwise legal actions taken at a regular meeting where agenda was not posted 24 hours in advance.
  - Satisfy public notice requirements established under other laws.
  - Provide a basis to award attorneys fees or seek court order under OPMA if agenda is not posted in accordance with this law.
“Special” Meetings

• A “special meeting” is a meeting that is not a regular meeting (not a regularly scheduled meeting).
• Called by presiding officer or majority of the members
• Notice - timing: 24 hours before the special meeting, written notice must be:
  - Given to each member of the governing body (unless waived)
  - Given to each local newspaper of general circulation, radio, and TV station which has a notice request on file
  - Posted on the agency’s website [with certain exceptions in RCW 42.30.080(2)(b), for example, if the agency does not have a website]
  - Prominently displayed at the main entrance of the agency’s principal location and the meeting site (if not that same location)

~ RCW 42.30.080
“Special” Meetings (Cont.)

- Notice - contents: The special meeting notice must specify:
  - Time
  - Place
  - Business to be transacted (agenda)
    - Final disposition shall not be taken on any other matter at such meeting

~ RCW 42.30.080
Emergency Special Meetings

• Notice is not required when special meeting called to deal with an emergency
  • Emergency involves injury or damage to persons or property or the likelihood of such injury or damage
  • Where time requirements of notice make notice impractical and increase likelihood of such injury or damage

~ RCW 42.30.080(4)
Public Attendance

• A public agency can’t place conditions on public to attend meeting subject to OPMA:
  • For proceedings governed by OPMA, cannot require people to register their names or other information, complete a questionnaire, or otherwise fulfill any condition precedent to attendance

  \[ \text{\textit{RCW 42.30.040}} \]

• Reasonable rules of conduct can be set

• Cameras and tape recorders are permitted unless disruptive
  \[ \text{\textit{AGO 1998 No. 15}} \]

• No “public comment” period required by OPMA
Interruptions and Disruptions

• The OPMA provides a procedure for dealing with situations where a meeting is being interrupted so the orderly conduct of the meeting is unfeasible, and order cannot be restored by removal of the disruptive persons.

• Meeting room can be cleared and meeting can continue, or meeting can be moved to another location, but final disposition can occur only on matters appearing on the agenda. More details set out in the OPMA.

~ RCW 42.30.050
Executive Session

- Part of a regular or special meeting that is closed to the public
- Limited to specific purposes set out in the OPMA
- Purpose of the executive session and the time it will end must be announced by the presiding officer before it begins; time may be extended by further announcement

~ RCW 42.30.110
Executive Sessions
Specified purposes set out in OPMA. Includes, for example:

- National security
- Real estate
  - Site selection or acquisition of real estate
    - Lease or purchase
    - Public knowledge would likely increase price
  - Sale or lease
    - Public knowledge would likely decrease price
    - Final action selling or leasing public property must be taken at open meeting
- Publicly bid contracts
  - Review negotiations on performance
  - Public knowledge would likely increase costs
- Evaluate qualifications of applicant for public employment
- Meet with legal counsel regarding enforcement actions, litigation or potential litigation
- Other purposes listed in RCW 42.30.110

~ RCW 42.30.110
Executive Session to Discuss Agency Enforcement Actions, Litigation or Potential Litigation

• This executive session is not permitted just because legal counsel is present
• This executive session must address:
  • Agency enforcement action
  • Agency litigation or
  • Potential litigation

~ RCW 42.30.110
Executive Session to Discuss Agency Enforcement Actions, Litigation, or Potential Litigation: Three Requirements

• Legal counsel representing the agency is present
• Purpose is to discuss agency enforcement action, litigation or potential litigation to which the agency, governing body, or a member acting in official capacity is, or is likely to become, a party
• Public knowledge regarding discussion likely to result in an adverse legal or financial consequence to the agency

~ RCW 42.30.110
Penalties for Violating the OPMA

- A court can impose a $500 civil penalty against each member (personal liability) who knowingly attends a meeting in violation of OPMA; and $1000 for a subsequent knowing violation.
- Court will award costs and attorney fees to a successful party seeking the remedy.
- Action taken at meeting can be declared null and void.

~ RCW 42.30.120; RCW 42.30.130; RCW 42.30.060
Minutes – RCW 42.30.*

- Minutes of public meetings must be promptly recorded and open to public inspection
- Minutes of an executive session are not required
- No format specified in law

* Formerly at RCW 42.32.030; To be recodified in 2017 in a new section in RCW 42.30 (OPMA) per Chap. 25, Laws of 2017, 3rd Sp. Sess.
Risk Management Tips

- Establish a culture of compliance with the OPMA.
- Receive training on the OPMA.
- Review available resources; institute best practices.
- Keep updated on current developments in OPMA; correctly apply law.
  - Remember: the OPMA can change through amendments, or develop through case law.
  - Remember: other laws can govern an agency’s meeting procedures.
- Consult with agency’s legal counsel.
OPMA Training

• The “Open Government Trainings Act” requires OPMA training for every member of a governing body within 90 days of taking their oath or assuming their duties. RCW 42.30.205.
• Refresher training occurs no later than every 4 years.
• Training can be taken online, in person, or by other means.

• Training resources, videos, and more information about the Act (a “Q & A”) are available on the Attorney General’s Office Open Government Training Web Page:
OPMA Assistance

• The Washington State Attorney General’s Office may provide information, technical assistance, and training on the OPMA. Contact Assistant Attorney General for Open Government.

• The Attorney General’s Office may issue formal opinions about the OPMA for qualified requesters.

• The Attorney General’s Office has helpful materials about the OPMA and on other open government topics and resources, on its website at http://www.atg.wa.gov/Open-Government.
