v.

NOTICE OF NONVIOLATION VOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE

RCW 59.30.040

MHDRP Complaint No. 347776

During the investigation into the above-entitled matter pursuant to RCW 59.30.040, the Program Manager of the Manufactured Housing Dispute Resolution Program of the Office of the Attorney General of Washington found there to be a VIOLATION of the Manufactured/Mobile Home Landlord-Tenant Act, RCW 59.20. However, during the course of the investigation the Respondent VOLUNTARILY COMPLIED with RCW 59.20. As a result, compliance with RCW 59.20 has been achieved. If you are aggrieved by the Program Manager's decision, your attention is directed to the section entitled APPEAL RIGHTS at the end of this Notice, which outlines the procedures under RCW 59.30.040 for obtaining review of this decision by an administrative law judge.

I. BACKGROUND AND INVESTIGATION

1. The Complainant, Robert Tetzlaff, filed a complaint under RCW 59.30.040 with the Washington State Attorney General's Manufactured Housing Dispute Resolution Program (MHDRP) against his landlord, Mountain Villa Estates Mobile Home Park (Mountain Villa), alleging violations of the Manufactured/Mobile Home Landlord-Tenant Act (MHLTA), RCW 59.20. Mountain Villa is a mobile home park for purposes of RCW 59.20.030(10), and is located in Enumclaw, Washington.

2. In his complaint Mr. Tetzlaff alleged that Mountain Villa attempted to transfer the responsibility for the upkeep of permanent structures, specifically the driveway, sidewalk and carport, in violation RCW 50.20.135.

3. After contacting the parties and attempting to resolve the disputes through the informal dispute resolution process, the MHDRP conducted a formal investigation pursuant to RCW 59.30.040(3) and found that Mountain Villa was in violation of the MHLTA. However,

Mountain Villa agreed to comply with RCW 59.20.135 and an agreement was reached between the parties.

4. Mountain Villa agreed to perform the necessary repairs and MHDRP has confirmed with Mr. Tetzlaff that they are complete.

II. CONCLUSIONS

1. The MHLTA regulates and determines the legal rights, remedies, and obligations arising from a rental agreement between a mobile home lot tenant and a mobile home park landlord. RCW 59.20.040. Any party aggrieved by a violation of RCW 59.20 party has the right to file a complaint with the MHDRP of the Attorney General's Office. RCW 59.30.040 (1). After receiving the complaint, the Attorney General's Office shall initiate the dispute resolution program by investigating alleged violations at its discretion and, if appropriate, facilitate negotiation between the parties. RCW 59.30.040(3). If after an investigation the MHDRP determines an agreement cannot be negotiated between the parties, the MHDRP will make a written determination on whether a violation of the MHLTA has occurred. RCW 59.30.040(5)-(6).

2. Here, following an investigation into the above-referenced complaint, the parties have reached an agreement. Mountain Villa has performed the necessary repairs on Mr. Tetzlaff's driveway and carport. This corrective action will alleviate Mr. Tetzlaff's concerns and prevent future violations of RCW 59.20.135. Accordingly, the MHDRP has concluded that Mountain Villa has not violated RCW 59.20.135, as the landlord has voluntarily complied with the law. No penalties shall be imposed at this time on either party.

III. ORDER

Now, based on the foregoing, it is therefore ORDERED that this NOTICE OF NONVIOLATION/VOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE be issued and served upon all parties in this matter pursuant to RCW 59.30.040.
